

Kingston Midstream
Limited

Affiliate Code of Conduct 2022 Compliance Plan

April 1, 2022

1. Introduction

Kingston Midstream Limited's ("Kingston") Affiliate Code of Conduct ("Code") requires the Compliance Officer to detail the policies, measures, procedures, and monitoring mechanisms that Kingston will use to ensure compliance with the provision of the Code, which is the intent of this compliance plan (the "Compliance Plan").

This Compliance Plan is for planning between 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2022 (the "Reporting Period").

Any questions, comments or concerns regarding this Compliance Plan should be directed to the Compliance Officer:

Heather Piercy
VP Legal, Regulatory and
General Counsel

2. Compliance Plan

The Code came into force April 1, 2019. This Compliance Plan is organized and numbered to correspond with the Code and adopts the definitions as set out in the Code.

3. Corporate Governance of the Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates

3.1 Separate Operations

To ensure separate operations as between Kingston's Regulated Affiliates and its Unregulated Affiliates Marketing Activities, Kingston has previously reorganized its corporate structure to ensure the Unregulated Marketing Activities cannot corporately direct the business affairs of Kingston's Regulated Affiliates and that they maintain separate operations as set out in the Code.

3.2 Common Directors

Kingston's Compliance Officer shall:

- a) advise all Kingston directors of the need to ensure they do not act in a dual capacity which could reasonably be determined to be to the detriment of the Customers;
- b) monitor Kingston's directors' meetings to ensure a) is adhered to; and
- c) document any incidents, including remedial measures, related to a) and list any such incidents in the Compliance Report.

3.3 Separate Management

Kingston will continue with its corporate structure that separates management as it relates to the operations of the Regulated Affiliate and the Unregulated Affiliates as required by the Code.

3.4 Exception to Separate Management

The corporate reorganization addressed the exceptions allowed under the Code.

3.5 Guiding Principle

The corporate reorganization was implemented to comply with the Guiding Principle of ensuring directors, officers and management team members of Regulated Affiliates do not act in a dual capacity to the detriment of Customers.

3.6 Accounting Separation

Section 3.6 of the Code requires Kingston to maintain separate financial records and books of accounts for Kingston's Regulated and Unregulated Affiliates business. Kingston has implemented the required accounting separation.

3.7 Physical Separation

Kingston secured new office space which provides for secure physical separation of Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates personnel to protect the Regulated Affiliates Confidential Information as required by the Code.

3.8 Separation of Information Services

Section 3.11 of the Code requires Confidential Information to be protected from unauthorized use by Kingston Affiliates, and that access to Information Services that contain Confidential Information be restricted via use of data management and data access protocols.

Kingston shall:

- a) advise the Information Technology Director of the section 3.11 Code requirement and request that such separation be confirmed or implemented;
- b) train existing and new Kingston personnel regarding the requirement of separate Information Services as set out in the Code;
- c) ensure access to electronic directories shall be granted in compliance with this Code;
- d) conduct a records management review and implement a new records management policy, procedure and process which shall include compliance with this Code; and
- e) require the Information Technology Director to advise the Compliance Officer of any breach of section 3.8 of the Code as soon as reasonably practicable after learning of any such breach and recommend prevention measures to prevent a similar future breach.

3.10 Sharing of Assets

The corporate reorganization shall include a review to ensure that the operational plant, assets, and equipment of Regulated Affiliates are separate in ownership from that of its Unregulated Affiliates. Additionally, the Controller shall be trained in relation to compliance with the Code and shall be required to advise the Compliance Officer of any breach of section 3.10 of the Code as soon as reasonably practicable after learning of any such breach and recommend prevention measures to prevent a similar future breach.

3.11 Sharing Services

Shared Services will be reviewed and allocated to Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates in keeping with this Code. All employees affected by this Code will be provided with training on compliance with the Code including the protection and use of Confidential Information. This training is an annual requirement for employees.

3.12 Sharing of Employees

As part of the Corporate Reorganization and the plan of physical segregation to ensure compliance with this Code, Kingston ensures its employees are only shared if they provide Shared Corporate Services or Shared Customer Services. The Shared Services will be reviewed and allocated to Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates in keeping with this Code, which allocation shall occur annually going forward.

Shared Corporate Services or Shared Customer Services will be advised that they are required to notify the Compliance Officer in the event they find themselves in a position where they will be in contravention of section 3.12. When notification has been received, it will be treated as an investigation. To the extent that such investigation concludes a non-compliance has occurred, such non-compliance with this policy requirement:

- a) will be documented by Compliance Officer or his/her representative;
- b) a corrective action plan will be put in place to correct the non-compliance(s); and
- c) any non-compliance(s) and corrective action plan will be described in the Compliance Report.

4. Pricing

4.1 Supplies and Services Provided by Regulated Affiliate to Unregulated Affiliates

Kingston's Finance Department will be advised it is required to record any exemptions to providing supplies and services by Regulated Affiliates to Unregulated Affiliates at non-Market Prices, that it must advise the Compliance Officer of such an incident, and that the incident will be documented by the Compliance officer in the Compliance Report.

4.2 Supplies and Services Provided by an Unregulated Affiliate to a Regulated Affiliate

The Code requires Regulated Affiliates shall procure supplies and services from Unregulated Affiliates, and vice versa, at no greater than Market Value, and such transactions shall be documented. To ensure compliance, Kingston shall:

- a) train Finance and Supply Chain employees this Code requirements;
- b) require Finance and Supply Chain employees to advise the Compliance Officer of any breach of this section 4.2; and
- c) describe any non-compliance(s) and corrective action plan in the Compliance Report.

4.3 Asset Transfers

The Code requires asset transfers between Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates to be transferred and recorded at Market Value. To ensure compliance, Kingston shall:

- a) train Finance employees on this Code requirements;
- b) require Finance employees to advise the Compliance Officer of any breach of this section 4.3; and
- c) describe any non-compliance(s) and corrective action plan in the Compliance Report

5. Equal Access and Treatment

5.1 Impartial Tariff an Equal Access

The Code requires that Regulated Affiliates shall not provide preferential treatment to Unregulated Affiliates, nor shall they favour Unregulated Affiliates in relation to access to Confidential Information. To ensure compliance, Kingston shall:

- a) train all employees on this Code requirements;
- b) advise Regulated Affiliate employees that they are prohibited by the Code from giving preferential treatment to Unregulated Affiliates or from providing them with Confidential Information, including a warning that this may lead to disciplinary action; and
- c) to the extent that the Controller indicates that there are non-compliance(s) with this policy requirement:
 - (i) such non-compliance(s) will be documented by Compliance Officer or his/her representative;
 - (ii) a corrective action plan will be put in place to correct the non-compliance(s); and
 - (iii) the non-compliance(s) and corrective action plan will be described in the Compliance Report.

5.2 Compliance with Competition Law

The Code requires Regulated Affiliates, and their Affiliates shall conduct themselves in accordance with all applicable competition law in the jurisdictions in which they conduct business. The Compliance Officer will review all transactions that may attract competition law issues and either internally or with external resources develop a plan to ensure compliance with the law as necessary.

5.3 Name

The Code requires that Unregulated Affiliates that conduct Marketing Activities shall include in their name and correspondence with Regulated Affiliates' customers sufficient language to differentiate the Unregulated Affiliates from the Regulated Affiliates and to ensure that Customers are not misled into believing they are Representatives of the Regulated Affiliates. Kingston will develop a separate name for Kingston Marketing Limited and different email addresses than Kingston personnel not involved with Marketing Activities. Kingston will require the Unregulated Affiliates conducting Marketing Activities utilize only these email addresses when representing themselves as Kingston employees.

6. Confidentiality

6.1 Use of Confidential Information

Regulated Affiliates are prohibited from making use of Confidential Information for the purpose of pursuing non-regulated business development activities, without the prior consent of the relevant Customer. To ensure compliance, Kingston shall:

- a) train all employees on this Code requirement;
- b) have all employees who have access to Confidential Information confirm they are trained on an annual basis, or for new employees, when hired, in relation to section 6.1 of the Code;
- c) to the extent that written consent is received from a Customer to permit Kingston employees to disclose the Customer's Confidential Information to an Unregulated Affiliate, such written consent will be maintained as documentation by the Compliance Officer, as a record of the approval; and
- d) advise Shared Corporate Services or Shared Customer Services employees that they must notify the Compliance Officer in the event they find themselves in a position where they are in contravention of section 6.1 and any such contravention shall be documented in the Compliance Report.

6.2 Disclosure of Confidential Information

Regulated Affiliates are prohibited from making use of Confidential Information for the purpose of pursuing non-regulated business development activities, without the prior consent of the relevant Customer. To ensure compliance, Kingston shall:

- a) train all employees on this Code requirement;
- b) have all employees who have access to Confidential Information confirm they are trained on an annual basis, or for new employees, when hired, in relation to section 6.2 of the Code;
- c) to the extent that written consent is received from a Customer to permit Kingston employees to disclose the Customer's Confidential Information to an Unregulated Affiliate, such written consent will be maintained as documentation by the Compliance Officer, as a record of the approval; and
- d) advise Shared Corporate Services or Shared Customer Services employees that they must notify the Compliance Officer in the event they find themselves in a position where they are in contravention of section 6.1 and any such contravention shall be documented in the Compliance Report

7. Compliance

7.1 Communication of the Code

The Code requires Each Regulated Affiliate and Unregulated Affiliate will ensure that their Representatives are provided with training and are made aware of their obligation to comply with the contents of the Code. Both the Regulated Affiliates and Unregulated Affiliates shall: (i) regularly communicate the contents of the Code, and any modifications to it from time to time to each of its Representatives; and (ii) make the Code available on the Regulated Affiliate's website.

Upon adoption of the Code, all staff will be provided a copy of the Code and advised that they are immediately required to comply with the Code. Additionally, training with knowledge testing will be developed and provided to all required staff during the Reporting Period, with re- training required annually. Additionally, the Code will be posted to the Kingston website.

7.2 Responsibility for Compliance

All Kingston Regulated Affiliate staff will be trained during the Reporting Period. The training will specifically include the responsibilities of staff under the Code, including specifically the obligation to notify the Compliance Officer of any non-compliance with the Code.

7.3 Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer is a Kingston executive and has been identified to all Kingston staff. A resource review for Compliance Officer support will be conducted during the Reporting Period, and if any additional resources are identified they will be added as required to support the objectives and compliance of this Code.

7.4 Responsibilities of the Compliance Officer

Within 120 days of the Reporting Period, the Compliance Officer shall confirm the following:
